

Wasatch Peak Academy

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

{ Tuesday, March 9th – Friday, March 13th }

Literacy MRS. FISO

This week we will be doing a research lesson on answering questions in I.C.E. format. We will also be editing and finalizing the students' Cause and Effect Essays. The final essay will be due Thursday.

Math

This week we will be working through Converting Rates and Measurements & Proportions.

Homeroom

Social Studies: This week we are beginning our unit on the Middle Ages with Charlemagne and the Franks.

Science: (Lott's homeroom) Unit final project due Tuesday and end of unit test on Thursday.

MS. NEWMAN

Literacy

Novel study, Vocabulary, Spelling, U5W3 reading and comprehension

Math

Area/Volume connections and computations.

Homeroom

Social Studies: Christianity, Islam and the effects on the middle ages

Science: (Montalvo's homeroom) Astronomy informative essay based on the three sections of chapter 1 & Test on Mar 17th

MR. LOTT

Literacy

Students will discover new vocabulary, understand how to write a strong thesis statement, and analyze myths.

Math

Students will learn how to solve and write equations.

Homeroom

Social Studies: We will begin our unit on the Middle Ages.

Science: (Newman's homeroom) Students will prepare to take their unit test, which will take place on Tuesday, the 17th.

MRS. MONTALVO

Important REMINDERS

- Final Teton student donation and chaperone payment due! Becky Mann is your point of contact for payment amount.
- Term 3 late work due Wednesday, March 18th.
- Term 3 ends on Friday, March 20th.

Upcoming EVENTS

- This Friday is Spring Pictures. Spring pictures are optional and students may change into casual attire for the picture. Sibling pictures are an option too.